Registration and Accreditation

The Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd has successfully achieved full accreditation through the Council on Higher Education to offer a 3 Year Diploma in Fashion Design (Ref No: H/PR122/E002CAN). The College is also fully registered as a Private Higher Education Institution in terms of Section 54(3) of the Higher Education Act, 1977 (Act No 101 of 1977), and Regulation 16(4)b of the Regulations for the Registration of Private Higher Education Institutions, 2002, until 31 December 2024. Registration No 2014/HE07/005. The Diploma is registered on the NQF, SAQA No 87426.

Board of Directors

The Director's of the Cape Town College of Fashion Design are:

Gregg Maragelis - Head of Institution

Michele Wallis - Head of Administration

Head of Institution

Gregg Maragelis

As a multi-award winning celebrated designer, Mr Maragelis joined the college in 2003 as the Fashion Design lecturer. He was appointed as a Director and Head of Institution in 2010 and is also currently the HOD of Fashion Design, facilitating this module on all three levels of the programme. He has achieved academic qualifications in both Fine Art and Fashion Design and thereafter had 15 years of fashion industry working experience, working alongside designer Errol Arendz, as the Head Designer for luxury brand Jenni Button and later, running his own business which supplied 45 stores internationally. Mr Maragelis also produced menswear brand Alter Ego for YDE. This wealth of experience enables him to mentor fashion design studies way beyond just theory.

Mr Maragelis is currently a Board Director for the Cape Town Fashion Council, and has served as Board Director for the South African Fashion Council. Mr Maragelis continues to mentor headline talent in South Africa and is known for his extensive reach in the industry.

Head of Administration

Michele Wallis

Mrs Wallis, the daughter of college founder Betty Keet, joined CTCFD at the end of 2007 having spent most of her working life working in the fashion industry in various administrative roles. Mrs Wallis has worked at Woolworths, Truworths and Seasprite in a secretarial capacity. It was while at Seasprite that she developed an interest in computers, and thereafter joined Deqtime, a company which ran a bureau for many clothing manufacturers. Mrs Wallis assisted these companies with the running of their manufacturing processes using a computerised clothing manufacturing system.

After working with Deqtime, she joined a computer company lecturing on commercial computer packages as well as continuing with the installation and training on the computerised clothing manufacturing system within the entire Seardele group. In 2003 she qualified with a Diploma in Financial Management through Varsity College and thereafter was involved part-time assisting with bookkeeping functions at two other small businesses before joining CTCFD.

Administration

Gail Minnaar Administrative Assistant

With 15 years administrative experience, Ms Minaar joined CTCFD at the start of 2015. Ms Minaar's role is to assist the Administrative Head as well as the Faculty Staff and students with the day-to-day running of the college.

Faculty

Charis Corbishley Academic Head

Advanced Diploma Supervisor

Mrs Corbishley graduated from CTCFD in 2011, winning the coveted 'Student of the Year' award, which afforded her an internship with one of SA's leading fashion designers, Suzaan Heyns. Since the completion of her internship in 2012, Mrs Corbishley has been lecturing in various capacities including in Fashion Design and Digital Fashion Application. Mrs Corbishley was selected as a finalist in the ELLE Rising Star Competition, showing her collection at Mercedes Benz Fashion Week Africa in 2014. She is currently completing a Masters Degree in Higher Education Studies at UCT specializing in curriculum development. She was promoted to the position of Academic Head at the beginning of 2020.

Nicole Da Silva Quality Assurance Manager / Short Course Manager

Ms Da Silva holds a Bachelors of Art in Fashion Design and is working towards her Honours degree in Psychology.

Ms Da Silva holds many years of experience in fashion, having worked in different areas of the industry such as design, business and production. After completing her degree she freelanced in fashion design and pattern making for private clients and boutiques. She then worked for Tweak and Style, a corporate clothing and image consultancy company based in Johannesburg - after which she partnered with a CMT to start her own corporate clothing company that sourced and manufactured garments. After moving to Cape Town she worked at a corporate clothing manufacturing company Image Makers as a garment technologist, design administrator and fabric buyer. Ms Da Silva lectures Business Studies across all three years of the Diploma programme, as well as Fashion Buying Principles in third year. She also holds the role of Quality Assurance Manager across all programmes offered at CTCFD to ensure student support.

Zaida Orgill Garment Technology Expert Practitioner

Mrs Orgill joined CTCFD in 2005, and is a skilled seamstress, having worked in this capacity in the industry for many years prior to joining the college. She has an integral role as expert practitioner in the Garment Technology department, passing on essential real-world experience.

Support Staff

Wendy Venfola General Cleaner

Admission Requirements

The minimum entry requirement is a National Diploma (NQF level 6, 360 credits), or a Bachelors Degree (NQF level 7) in fashion, fashion design or cognate field.

Prospective learners have to be legal South African citizens or present a valid passport and study permit.

Students applying to study the Advanced Diploma in Fashion who have qualified at another institution will be required to undergo an interview process with the Directors and Course Supervisor. They will be required to submit a portfolio of previous work completed during their Diploma studies.

International Students

South African citizens will be given preference during the selection procedure and acceptance of international students is subject to space availability. International students are required to submit a completed application form in addition to the following documentation:

RPL Procedure

Students who do not meet the minimum entrance requirements can apply for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL). Prior learning will be recognised if the student is able to demonstrate competence in the knowledge, skills, values and attitudes embedded in the core of this qualification. A portfolio submission, interview and a variety of tests will be used to determine suitability. Please contact the College for more details.

Financial Aid

The College offers bursaries each year to those students who have completed the 3 Year Full-Time Diploma in Fashion Design at CTCFD and who have proven to be worthy of this opportunity.

Student loans can be obtained through any commercial banking institution, e.g. ABSA, Standard, or through Eduloan, who specialise in student loans. These loans are able to cover both fees and extra study requirements. Please contact Administration for further information in this regard.

Health & Safety

The Management team at the Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd will strive to do everything within reason to protect the health and safety of its students and staff. The objective is to provide an effective health and safety programme of a high standard which is subject to continuous improvement.

We believe that:

- Accidents, injuries and occupational diseases are preventable.
- Management is responsible for creating an environment conducive to achieving this.
- Training staff to work safely is essential in this pursuit.
- Safety requires the involvement and commitment of all staff members.
- Accident prevention is also good business practice.

It is the right of all:

Staff, academic and administrative, both full-time and part-time students, visitors, incl. guest lecturers to work and learn in an environment that is safe, clean, well-lit and well-ventilated

Full Occupational Health & Safety Policy is available on request or can be downloaded from our website.

Language Policy

Programmes are delivered in English in accordance with the College Language Policy. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that s/he is able to understand and communicate effectively in this language.

Policy on Disability

The Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd will treat all employees and students with dignity and respect and will provide an environment for learning and working that is free from unlawful discrimination, harassment, bullying and victimisation. The Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd is committed to an Equal Opportunities environment and recognises the importance and value of diversity. It recognises its social, moral and statutory duty to admit and employ people with disabilities.

The Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd would like individuals who apply to The Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd to be confident that they will receive fair treatment and be considered on their ability to do the job or training. The Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd employment and admissions policies aim to ensure that people with disabilities receive treatment that is fair, equitable and consistent with their skills and abilities. Similarly, The Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd admits students to the available places on its courses based on their academic ability and motivation.

The Cape Town College of Fashion Design (Pty) Ltd will make every effort, if an existing employee or student becomes disabled, to retrain and retain them wherever practicable.
